

To maintain and gradually improve business aligned IT Service quality, through a constant cycle of agreeing, monitoring, reporting and reviewing service improvements and through instigating actions to erradicate unacceptable levels of service.

Service Level Management

